

Financial Peace University

"May He give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed." - Psalm 20:4

Jamie Degen will be teaching Financial Peace University, founded by Dave Ramsey, a personal money management expert. Ramsey knows firsthand what financial peace means in his own life—living a true riches to rags to riches story.

Financial Peace University covers topics such as Super Saving, Relating With Money, Cash Flow Planning, Dumping Debt, Credit Sharks In Suits, Buyer Beware, Of Mice and Mutual Funds, From Fruition to Tuition, Real Estate and Mortgages and much more!

In Financial Peace University you will learn...

- How to make a budget that you will understand and actually use.
- How Dave uses the powerful combination of humor, visual aids, props, and personal stories to help teach thousands of families like yours how to Beat Debt and Build Wealth!
- How to pay off $5,300 in debt and put $2,700 into savings in only 91 days!
- How to invest with confidence.
- How to change your financial future.

Bountiful Basket, Community Food Shelf of Eastern Carver County serves Chaska, Victoria and the surrounding communities. All kinds of people use the food shelf including mom's, dad's, people with low income paying jobs, senior citizens, and people going through life changing events.

The Food Shelf strives to have their food packages address the recommended distribution of food within the six basic food groups. Therefore, each month we collect a designated food shelf item.

FOOD SHELF ITEM OF THE MONTH:

CANNED/BOXED MEALS

During the month of August we will be collecting meals for the Food Shelf. You can help out by bringing any type of canned or boxed meal, i.e. "complete" boxed meals, tuna helper, macaroni & cheese, canned beef stew, ravioli, spaghetti, etc. any Sunday in August and place in the designated "Food Shelf" box located in the lobby.

Call or email Renee at 952-443-2993, ext. 228 / rjopp@christvictorious.org with any questions.
